- Presidents Report
None
- Membership
PAGC had 5 renewals and 1 new member in January bringing total membership to 258.
- Treasurer
PAGC has a new checking account. Old checks will be destroyed. At the end of January 2014 balance in account was $17,000. There was no large exchange of money either in or out. Rich will received his $1200 for 2013. For 2014 he will receive $300/quarter. Any money paid to Rich that Bill should receive will be between Rich and Bill. PAGC will not pay Bill Directly. Projection is to end 2014 with $4600.
- Handicap
No requests for postings updates. Current score cards at the club reflect the correct NCGA rating.
- Tournament
Green fees will be adjusted for tournaments starting with the Red/White/Blue to add additional $12 to cover prize payouts. Stroke play championship will be changed to two days at Shoreline rather than 1 day at Shoreline and the second at Moffett. Fees for NCGA qualifiers will be paid by the club.

- Old Business
Reviewed decision about membership in USGA at Craig Allen's request. Decision remains that we will not renew membership. Craig's name will be removed as PAGC contact for USGA. Discussed printing new PAGC stickers which will be delayed until the new course opens in 2015.
- New Business
None

The meeting was adjourned at 7:30.

Next meeting is March 6, 2014 at 6 PM at the PGA Superstore.
